Welcome to the QS World University Rankings® 2014/15. Use the interactive ranking table below to explore the world's top universities, with options to sort the results by country, region and subject. You can also sort the ranking results based on the six individual indicators used (see the full methodology here (/university-rankings-articles/world-university-rankings/qs-world-university-rankings-methodology)). To compare two or more universities, log in or register (/user/register?destination=node/197036) as a site member.
